

THE MARION STAR

INSURRECTION REPORTED IN MILAN

SEVENTH ARMY NOW 90 MILES FROM MESSINA

U. S. Force Sweeps East as Eighth Army Is Checked at Catania.

By The Associated Press
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, July 25—American troops of the Seventh army, pushing eastward toward the tip of Sicily, have captured Cefalu, 90 miles west of Messina strait, and are advancing against strongly prepared German defenses at San Geronimo, it was announced at allied headquarters today.

The Americans are slashing forward from a deep front along the coast, and have also captured Alimena, 25 miles southeast of Cefalu, and four other towns along a line from Cefalu to Alimena.

The other four are Petralia, five miles north of Alimena; Caltavuturo, nine miles southwest of Cefalu; Caltavuturo, 17 miles southwest of Cefalu; and Polizzi, just forward of Caltavuturo.

The battle of the bridgehead has reached the "stagnant stage," said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters communique, announcing that Canadian troops in the center of the front also had made progress in hard fighting and against bitter opposition.

Eighth Army Stopped
The British Eighth army still was stopped dead before Catania in the eastern sector for the third successive day—longer than it was stopped either at El Alamein in Egypt when it took up the offensive, or at the Mareh line in Tunisia.

Announcement of the fall of Catania came at least 36 hours late, and while there were no more official reports on progress, it was plain that the heaviest American forces were being drawn up for an all-out blow along the north coast.

The Germans still were getting reinforcements, and it was discussed that "the bulk of two Italian field divisions" had escaped from the bridgehead from the west.
This appeared to trim down previous official estimates that 110,000 German soldiers had been trapped since the start of the campaign.
"One million" was the last official count of prisoners.

From dispatches said the Germans were completely in charge of the strong line running from San Stefano to Nicosia, Alfida, Caltavuturo to the Dittusa river and had put Italian survivors of two field divisions which escaped the American envelopment of western Sicily to digging trenches and preparing new blocks.

The same report, however, said that "political developments" do not appear yet to have interfered with the German habit of sandwiching Italians in at the firing line.

Few Italians Fighting
It is believed only a small number of Italians actually continued combat troops.

Allied aircraft swept over a number of airfields on the Italian mainland, bombing those at Capo-d'Orlando and Monte Corvino Ra-vella on Monday night and the airbase at Catania Scalo by daylight yesterday. Hits were scored on hangars and runways and several parked aircraft.

Radio communications in Sicily also were attacked by light bombers.

In Sicily light bombers raided the small port of Milazzo on the northern tip of coast and raked road and rail communications.

Italian aircraft operated over Sicily early Monday night.

It is an activity five enemy airplanes were shot down and three allied planes were lost, the communiqué said.

RAF Liberators and Halifaxes from the 15th Air Force pounded the town of Reggio Calabria on the tip of the Italian boot Monday night and Tuesday morning in another effort to knock out axis air bases. Bombers also struck at the shipping in the Aegean sea.
Bomb operations were completed and planes returned to allied planes.

President Drafts War Report To People in Talk Tonight

Radio Address at 9:30 P. M. Will Be First Review by Chief Executive Since Last February.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 25—Against a backdrop of Allied might pounding forward on all major fronts and the political demise of Benito Mussolini, President Roosevelt drafted today his first war report to the American people in five and a half months.

The President will broadcast for half an hour on all networks tonight at 9:30 o'clock, eastern war time, and the White House labeled the address of "major importance."

Mr. Roosevelt told his press radio conference yesterday he would talk on the war, and he made it plain he considered war activities at home and in the actual theaters of combat of parallel importance, a hint on the scope of tonight's speech.

He was in a position to paint a glowing picture of events in the Mediterranean, the Pacific, Russia and from the skies over Europe.

But words of caution appeared in order from the Chief Executive on what has been happening here to wages, prices, manpower, internal disputes in the government, as well as on an admitted possibility that war production goals for 1945 may not be attained.

No Review Since Feb. 12 Not since Feb. 12, when he spoke at a dinner of the White House Correspondents' association, has the Chief Executive presented a comprehensive review of the war to his countrymen. Allied armies then still were trying to exterminate enemy resistance in Tunisia, and the President promised that the consequences of victory there would be "actual invasions of the continent of Europe."

Obliquely, Mr. Roosevelt indicated yesterday there would be no need for the allied policy of unconditional surrender, declaring Secretary of State Hull already had covered the matter in saying he had seen no intimations and expected none from the White House or war department that the policy would be altered.

Mr. Roosevelt told his conference that neither the White House nor the state department had authorized a broadcast by the office of war information (OWI) which referred to "Vittorio Emanuele of Italy as 'the moronic little king,'" and his disapproval was palpable.

Grafton's Reply

In New York, Samuel Grafton, columnist for the New York Post, whom the OWI quoted in its broadcast, issued the following statement after hearing of President Roosevelt's disapproval:

"The phrase 'moronic little king' seems to me a rather temperate reference to the head of a state which has declared war on my country, but in view of the omnious indications that England and America may accept the Benito government, I can only say that perhaps the moronic little king is smarter than I thought."

Marion, Bucyrus Youths Share in War Bond Honors

Marion and Bucyrus residents shared in June war bond honors announced today by the War Finance Committee for Ohio.

Richard Shively, naval aviation bombardier from Marion, whose talk about his experiences in Pacific warfare highlighted a war bond sales banquet in Marion recently, was chosen Marion county "Man of the Month" for June. It was announced by Harold H. Bredlow, executive director of the War Finance Committee for Ohio, at his office in Cleveland.
Seaman Shively, wounded in action, has received several awards for his participation in Pacific air warfare.

The Bucyrus resident honored is 14-year-old Robert Hughes of 214 West Mary street in Bucyrus.
He will get a $25 war bond and a silver medal at a luncheon today in Cincinnati honoring his selection as war bond champion for Region 6 of Ohio in June. The region includes Crawford, Ashland, Erie, Huron, Knox, Marion, Morrow, Richland and Wyandot counties.

Hughes, Mr. Bredlow said, is a newsboy of the Bucyrus Telegraph Forum. "By sincere efforts he has averaged 3,000 stamps per month."

(Turn to BOND HONORS, P. 10)

HOW MUSSOLINI'S DOWNFALL COULD AFFECT WAR. If Mussolini's ouster is a prelude to Italian surrender, this well might be the way the European war would go. Elimination of the Italian armies would ease the way for Allied invasions (black arrows) of southern France, Italy itself and the Balkans. Algiers reports said that Italian divisions (open arrows) already have been ordered home from France and the Balkans. Allied air bases in northern Italy would place in easier reach (circles) eastern Germany and the Nazi lines of communication to the Russian front.

TURKEY TAKES WAR SPOTLIGHT

Conference Between Italian, Ankara Ministers Arouses Speculation.

By The Associated Press

ISTANBUL, July 25—Turkey was projected dramatically into the role of a possible mediator between the United Nations and Italy today by a hasty and mysterious conference between the new Italian foreign minister, Ra-faele Guariglia, and Turkish foreign minister Numan Menemencioglu.

The meeting was held amid every indication of secrecy and urgency aboard the Italian embassy launch in the sea of Marmora yesterday. Immediately after the conference, Menemencioglu left hurriedly for the capital at Ankara and it was disclosed that Guariglia—who has been in Turkey as ambassador under the Fascist regime of Benito Mussolini—would leave by plane today for Rome.

Circumstances Unusual

The circumstances under which the meeting was held were, in themselves sufficient to rouse intense interest.

The fact the Turkish minister agreed to see Guariglia at Istanbul instead of the foreign office in Ankara indicated the importance of the conference, Turkey, as a neutral power, maintaining close diplomatic relations with both the United States and Great Britain, is a logical choice as the medium for possible Italian peace overtures.

Guariglia was appointed to the Turkish post three months ago and at the time it was understood that he was not the Italians' first choice for the job. Rome, it was understood, wanted to appoint an ambassador with pro-allied leanings, but the suggestion apparently was vetoed by Berlin, Italy's axis partner. Guariglia, who is not known to have exhibited any particular allied sympathies, is known to have been only lukewarm toward the Fascist party.

There were unconfirmed rumors in Istanbul that Guariglia's successor as ambassador to Turkey would be Count Galeazzo Ciano, Mussolini's son-in-law, who was removed as fascist foreign secretary and sent to Valcan as ambassador early this year.

Realty Tax Payments in Marion Co. Lagging

With half of the current real estate tax collection period gone, only about one-third of the money due before the Sept. 1 deadline has been received, County Treasurer Marion E. Hinklin said today.

The collection so far this period amounts to $176,183 as compared with $362,002 yet due, he said.

Unless a steady flow of payments is begun at once, a late rush of taxpayers and the inevitable waiting lines that accompany them will develop, the treasurer said.

Call To Service Man Among Gifts for Stamp Auction

One of Uncle Sam's fighting men, or women, presumably a Marion county resident, will receive an unexpected long distance telephone call from a Marion county man, and he will be asked to donate a gift to the war bond and stamp auction to be held Friday night at the courthouse as the highlight of the county's participation in the nationwide July drive to raise $130, 000,000 for the purchase of the aircraft carrier Shangri-La.

Jerry Passen, chairman of the month-long drive, in Marion county announced yesterday that a Marion merchant has donated the price of a long distance call to any service man or woman stationed anywhere within the continent limits of the United States. The privilege of making the call will go to the person bidding the largest bond and stamp purchase when the call is offered at the auction.

Meanwhile, arrangements for the bond and stamp auction are progressing rapidly and contributions from Marion merchants and others interested in the success of the drive are being received by the county war bond committee.
Passen estimated that between 50 and 60 items will have been received by the time of the auction Friday at 9 p.m.

A large number of items which are unusually hard to obtain in Marion stores have been donated so far. Among these items are alarm clocks and various types of electrical appliances for the home.

Donations reported today include 25 pounds of coffee ground as desired and a baby high chair.

FLOOD TRAPS MINERS

MOBS FILL STREETS SHOUTING DEMANDS FOR PEACE, LIBERTY

By The Associated Press

BERN, Switzerland, July 25—Unconfirmed reports received at the Italian frontier today said an insurrection had broken out at Milan.

Mobs swept through the streets, despite a state of siege proclaimed by the military authorities, shouting "Liberty," and "We Want Peace," the reports said.

Shots were fired.

The situation was described as extremely grave.

Earlier the Corriere Della Sera of Milan had reported islands of Fascist resistance were holding out against Italian troops at Milan and indicated that uncertainty over the new government's course between peace and war were producing restlessness among the people.

The Rome radio, in frequent interruptions of musical programs, warned the people against "sensational" rumors circulated by irresponsible persons.

Tullio Giordano, new director of the Gazzetta Del Popolo at Turin, was quoted in dispatches as urging patience upon the people advising them that it was not possible to make peace in two days.

The Newpaper Il Corriere Della Sera reported that Fascists in the Milan suburbs barricaded themselves in buildings and fired on crowds of civilians and soldiers.

The newspaper said the fight to wipe out nests of Fascist resistance was "long, difficult and bloody," with some of the followers of ex-Premier Mussolini's regime still battling authorities.

Inmates of the great Milan prison of Cellulare mutilated and burned part of the prison in an attempted break. One prisoner was killed and many were wounded.

Fights in Naples

Bomb-torn Naples was also the scene of fights in which several were killed and wounded as the people celebrated the fall of Fascism. Other cities in northern and southern Italy witnessed continuous demonstrations.

Most of the trouble was centered at Milan, the birthplace of Italian fascism but also the strongest center of Socialist, Communist and other political movements.

Il Corriere Della Sera reported that in Morgani street, Milan Fascists battled three hours during the night firing from the windows and roof of a building. The structure was said now to be encircled by troops but all the Fascists had not yet been captured.

Commenting upon an "effervescent atmosphere," the paper added that following the demonstrations of national enthusiasm at the fall of Fascism "a certain rest has risen among the people."

Armistice: Reporters Flee

Swiss Telegraph Agency reports from the Italian frontier that the new Italian regime was "discussing conditions of an armistice" with allied representatives in Vatican City, but they were absolutely without confirmation.

(The NBC correspondent in Bern, in a broadcast, said the Rome radio had declared reports of Italian peace overtures were "unfounded," and had denied that British and American representatives in Vatican City had been instrumental in bringing about a contact for peace negotiations.)

(So far official Rome has stood pat on the principle that fighting continues," said the NBC broadcaster.)

(The Italian communique today declared: Nazi planes sank a corvette and tanker and set fire to six transports at Augusta and Syracuse in Sicily.)

(The bulletin reported an attack by an Italian submarine on an allied aircraft carrier in the Atlantic and said two direct hits were scored.)

Spontaneous but nonetheless serious clashes between die-hard Fascists and regular army troops, chiefly in Milan, were reported

Italy's Role in War Takes On Deep Tone of Mystery Today

By The Associated Press

Italy's role in the war took on a deeper tinge of mystery today amid a new flurry of peace rumors, speculation that Turkey might act as mediator, and an Algiers radio report that German troops were moving northward through Italy—possibly abandoning the Italians to their fate.

On the fighting front, Gen.
Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced that American 7th Army troops sweeping east toward the axis "escape port" at Messina had captured the town of Cefalu on the northern coast.

Field dispatches said Lieut.
Gen. George S. Patton Jr.'s U.S. forces were slashing forward on a deep front along the north coast and had also captured Alimena, 25 miles southeast of Cefalu, and four other towns.

Italian States Clouded

The status of Italy under Premier Marshal Pietro Badoglio's new regime was clouded by a host of conflicting reports:

1. In London, Prime Minister Churchill replied with a crisp "no, sir," when asked in the house of commons whether any reply had been received to requests for the unconditional surrender of Italy.

All the essential B Vitamins give You a full day's work

If you would be active, productive and of good morale, a new shift of wonder workers must report each day for duty in your diet. These wonder workers are the mighty B vitamins and there are more than a dozen besides the well-known B₁. Whether obtained from your food or from other sources, they spend the day improving your efficiency and keeping your wits sharp. Then they vanish mysteriously... and must be replaced.

Nature is none too generous with these essential vitamins in the food that comes to your table. Besides, the best of cooks can easily destroy them. That is why more and more people are supplementing their daily diet with the B Complex vitamins in concentrated form:

The Home of Budweiser is one of the world's biggest sources of natural B Complex Vitamins. They are produced from brewer's yeast. We supply food and pharmaceutical manufacturers with a huge volume of this vitamin yeast each year. They in turn supply our armed forces and civilian population with millions of vitamin units. This contribution to your welfare resulted from years of research, laboratory and clinical work in quest of better methods and facilities for brewing the world's most popular beer.

WANTED: GOOD HARD WORKER NO HOUR LIMIT • NO PAY with plenty of night work

There's nothing wrong with the spirit of Americans when they'll eagerly apply for a job like this—and stick to it!

Thousands have taken on the job. They're the men and women who make up the Rationing Boards in every community. Neighbors of yours and mine.

They serve without pay, working late into the night and on week ends . . . because most of them have their regular full-time jobs to do, as well.

They pass up the movies and the bridge games and the other simple pleasures . . . become almost strangers to friends and the folks at home.

All this because there's a tough job, and a thankless one—but an exceedingly necessary one—to be done if we are all to share in keeping the home front and the war front strong.

These local Rationing Boards, with the generous help of school teachers, have smoothly and efficiently handled the tremendous burden of installing the rationing systems on tires, gasoline, fuel oil, sugar, and meats and foodstuffs.

They've done it courteously, helpfully and with infinite patience. They have earned and deserve the co-operation, respect and appreciation of their fellow-Americans.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY (OHIO)

One of a series of SOHIO messages emphasizing the vital role of the Home Front in America's fight for Freedom . . . this time in the hope that this message will help all citizens better understand and co-operate with their local War Price and Rationing Boards in their important work.

Public Asked for Opinions On Causes of Race Disturbances

By GEORGE GALLUP
American Institute of Public Opinion

St. J., July 28—Roosevelt has an attorney general's committee of inquiry into the causes of race disturbances. The committee will begin a study of race riots.

So many factors are involved that only a group of experts can probably get at the bottom of these disturbances, which have flared up in this war just as they did in the last war.

To find out just how the man-in-the-street explains these disturbances, the institute had field reporters throughout the nation put this question to a representative cross-section of men and women:

"What do you think is real cause of race riots such as Detroit has had?"

No answers were suggested. Each person was called on to give his own ideas.

Detroit Opinions

A high percentage of the persons interviewed in Detroit are inclined to ascribe the recent trouble there to "floaters and drifters attracted to the city by war work." Particularly, they are inclined to blame Southerners who have recently taken jobs in Detroit, and the lack of segregation of races both in the city proper and in Detroit factories. Others in Detroit are inclined to blame "young hoodlums" of both races and the present day "fast living" in the city, as well as bad housing conditions. A few typical comments of Detroiters are as follows:

"I think they've got the scum of the country here, and neither one like the smell of the other.... Mrs. Roosevelt is partly to blame because she backs up the colored race all over the South.... Factory jobs put too many Negroes too close to whites, and whites don't like it.... Beer gardens stay open too late; it's the young people.... Detroit's a fast town; things are geared high; the influx of great numbers of Negroes have given the whites the jitters.... Too many floaters from the south caused the riots, not the people from Detroit."

White persons interviewed in states south of the Mason-Dixon line blame lack of segregation. "Trying to put Negroes and whites on an equal basis," labor leaders, and politics. Some white persons in the South think the trouble lies in the fact that "the North-erners don't understand the Negro." A few are inclined to blame agitators and ignorant people.

Negro Opinions

Negroes outside the South who were interviewed in the study ascribe the Detroit riot to "jealousy on the part of the whites," the fact that "white people don't ever try to like us." Others believe the cause to be Southerners who have migrated to the North since the war. A surprising number of Negroes are, however, willing to blame "hoodlums" among their own race as well as among the whites. Or, as one man put it, "a lot of uneducated whites and blacks with chips on their shoulders just looking for a chance to scrap."

Among other groups of the country, the reasons cited most often are "enemy influences...."

subscribers. Fifth Column work Nazi propaganda. There are others who believe that "bad living conditions, wrong leadership and 'mean nerves' are chiefly to blame."

Auxiliary Enrolls

Two New Members

Two members were obligated at a meeting of Ladies Auxiliary No. 277 of Roosevelt Lodge No. 1281 and Erie Machinists Local No. 1059, Monday night in the Labor Union hall. A letter was received from Mrs. Mae Prake, international president complimenting the auxiliary for an article sent to the Machinists Monthly magazine. It was announced that Mrs. Jennie Bailey will deliver the auxiliary's gift to the contest for service men at the Union station. Mrs. Hattie Harper won the sunshine drill. During the meeting prayer was offered for Mrs. Rudolph McClelland, a member who is ill in the City hospital.

A Lovely Workroom!

That is what dozens of admirers have said after seeing the beautiful Armstrong Inlaid installation which we made for Mrs. Walter Slob at 382 North State street. Honestly, it is so lovely that Mrs. Slob will welcome you if you call to inspect it.

Here is a job that shows you just what we mean when we tell you that we can convert a drab, unsightly room into a real place of beauty. It is a modern kitchen. Any one would be proud to work there.

We are so proud of it that we had Hughes' Studio take a picture of it. You may call at our store and see it. And dozens of others that are equally attractive.

These are our jewels. These photos tell you why we boast that "We don't SELL Linoleum." We sell and create beautiful workrooms that speak for themselves. Hundreds of nicest homes in Marion County are mighty proud of their new Kitchen and Bath Room designed by Lennon's and installed by our factory trained experts.

There is no obligation on your part to have us design a room for your home that will make you equally proud. Then, too, these new Armstrong floors are so easily taken care of. Saves you all that hard work of scrubbing.

We show every pattern in the big Armstrong line. You choose your new floor not from samples, but from full rolls that enable you to see just how your new floor will look.

Ohio Lieutenant, Hero of Bismarck Sea Battle, Home

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, July 26.—Lieutenant William Crawford Jr., of Marion, Ohio, returned as one of the heroes of the battle of the Bismarck Sea and the story today of how it took place. Crawford was one of the 27 Japanese Zero fighter planes after their attack on the Bismarck Sea. A fire broke out in the fuselage. A single bomb still hung in the air in the bomb bay.

Ordinarily the remaining bomb could have been released from the cockpit. But since the Zero handle was smashed, Lieut. John L. Gibbon of Hattisburg, Miss., the co-pilot, had to go down through the hatch into the bomb bay to signal bombardier to release the missile.

"The sweating out of that bomb probably took only a minute and a half," said Crawford, "but it seemed like three hours."

Shortly afterwards the crew managed to beat out the flames and escaped the 27 pursuing Japanese planes by steering their ship into a bank of clouds.

In the end, the "Loose Goose" made an emergency landing at an American advanced base where, Lieut. Crawford said, the crew members "kissed the ground, doing all that saluting stuff" in their relief at being saved.

Crawford holds eight decorations and has been wounded twice in the south Pacific. His achievements include bringing back disabled flying Fortresses on two other occasions, shooting down enemy planes, sinking three Japanese warships and an 8,000-ton transport ship, and the saving of himself and crew after his bomber took an 8,000-foot nose dive with the controls jammed.

KISKA RAIDED 19 TIMES IN 2 DAYS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 25—A force of the Pacific command striking Japanese defenses with unprecedented fury, in 19 attacks on Kiska Island in the North Pacific Monday and Tuesday, navy reported today, and again raided Wake Island in the central Pacific.

The 19 raids in two days announced in a navy communiqué raised to 49 the number of attacks which bombers and fighter-bombers have made on embattled Kiska in four days.

The island has been raided 19 times this month, a figure which the navy said is expected to rise as the enemy strikes by American bombers.

The raid on Wake Island, which was reported today, was the first in a series of attacks on the Japanese plane, previously destroyed by fire and damaged three others.

Four days earlier a B-29 Superfortress had destroyed nine Zeros, probably destroyed four and damaged five out of 39 when sought to prevent a raid.

Never before had American bombs, fallen on Wake Island in such a close together. Prior to the attack last Saturday American bombers had not made the 2,400-mile round trip from Midway to Wake since May 17.

BADOLIO'S CABINET DISSOLVES FASCISM

By The Associated Press

The Rome radio announced today that "complete dissolution" of the National Fascist party had been ordered at the first meeting of the new Italian cabinet, held yesterday under the presidency of Marshal Pietro Badoglio, new premier.

The broadcast, recorded by The Associated Press, said that the cabinet also decided:

1. To abrogate the 14-year-old law under which the Fascist grand council became an organ of the state, the law being "incompatible with the return to constitutional normality."

2. To suppress the special tribunal for defense of the state. It was ordered that cases ordinarily tried by the tribunal were transferred to military courts of the army corps "during the duration of actual war."

Before the war, sale of postage stamps to tourists was a thriving business in Vatican City.

BLUE POINT VALUES

CHANGED BY OPA

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 25—Blue point values for August and September stamps by week, remaining valid until Sept. 20, according to a new list of price administration stamps.

Stamps of eight OPA listed several changes in point values which will become effective August 1. These included:

Increases — Frozen fruits and berries from six to nine points; frozen green and lima beans, cut corn, peas and spinach from four to six points per pound; canned tomato juice at the rate of one point per pound, except for small cans up to 14 ounces which remain unchanged.

Decreases — Frozen fruit juices from four to two points per pound.

Canned or bottled beans are to be changed in various sizes, with some increases and some decreases, but the average will remain unchanged, OPA said.

Retreating Nazis Burn Soviet Towns

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, July 25—Retreating Germans are burning villages, impressing the inhabitants into labor gangs and forcing them to dig trenches and dugouts for the last desperate defense of Orel on the central Russian front, Red army dispatches declared today.

A Russian communiqué reported that Field Marshal Guenther Von Kluge's army was continuing to fall back as the Soviets pressed in on three sides of the big Nazi base.

Savage battles were being fought on the sector northwest of Orel, where the Russian troops were cutting in toward the Bryansk railway.

Resistance was stubborn, the Russians said, declaring they had switched to flank attacks and encirclement moves when unable to penetrate German defenses in frontal assault.

The midnight communiqué reported the capture of 50 more villages as the Soviet line advanced from two to four miles closer to the encirclement and capture of Orel.

It added that in the day's fighting Russian troops destroyed 80 tanks and 44 German planes.

May Trip to Derby Costs Mansfield Man B Card

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 25—Because he drove his wife's automobile to the Kentucky derby last May, James W. Slattery of Mansfield, O., must get along without his B supplemental gasoline ration for 45 days.

Hearing Commissioner Dennis F. Dunlavy of the office of price administration ordered the suspension last yesterday. The basic gasoline ration issued to Slattery's wife, who owns the automobile but did not attend the derby, was suspended for a similar period.

At the hearing, Slattery said he had used ration coupons other than those issued to him and his wife, but that the extra coupons were received in envelopes bearing no return address and he did not know who sent them. Four other Mansfielders who accompanied Slattery to the derby were not penalized as Dunlavy held the OPA had not sustained charges of conspiracy against them.

Flash Flood Kills Child as Water Engulfs Auto

By The Associated Press

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., July 25—A flash flood early today killed a seven-month-old baby, washed out a highway bridge and caused general property damage in the Blaine-Bridgeport area.

Deputy Sheriff Justin Halenar of Belmont county said the baby was the child of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Butts of Wheeling, W. Va. He reported the couple left their automobile at nearby Lansing to seek shelter from the storm and that during their absence flood waters from a small run overflowed the highway, washing the car containing the baby into a field.

The state highway department reported the Chermont bridge on Route 40 near Lansing was washed out.

Italy Won't Get Back All Lost Empire, Eden Says

By The Associated Press

LONDON, July 25—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden made it clear today the allies would not return to Italy all her North African possessions in event of her "honorable capitulation."

The foreign secretary answered "No, sir," when asked in the house of commons by the Liberal member Thomas Magnay concerning this possibility.

The question was not raised whether Italy might expect to get back some of her former holdings.

13 Jap Planes Shot Down by U. S. in China

By The Associated Press

AT U. S. 14TH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS IN CHINA, July 25—(Delayed)—U. S. medium bombers and fighters raided Hankow today, destroying many enemy installations and shooting down 13 Japanese fighters in retaliation for Japanese attacks on advanced American bases in the last three days.

The toll increased to 44 the number of enemy aircraft destroyed since the Japanese raids began July 23—the first enemy offensive action since May 17—compared with losses of two American planes.

Italy's Troubles

Put Hitler in Difficult Spot

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Italy's current predicament and its far-reaching moral effect are likely to make the way of transgressor Hitler exceedingly hard in the not distant future.

The way things now are developing it wouldn't be surprising to see the Nazi chief attempt the major operation of making a sweeping withdrawal on all fronts to restricted boundaries which he would try to defend against the allies—come they come. Strengthened by this consolidation he would battle for a stalemate, hoping not only to save the reich but salvage some of his ill-gotten gains.

The length of time which must elapse before the all highest undertakes such a last-stand move obviously depends on how hard the allies are able to push him. That in turn hinges on the speed with which the Anglo-American brotherhood is able to clean up the Italian situation and strike elsewhere.

Balkan Threat

In yesterday's column I pointed out the great threat which would be created to the present German battle-line in Russia if western allies should follow the Italian collapse with an invasion of the Balkans. A successful drive up the Balkan peninsula would force the Nazis to undertake the terribly dangerous task of pulling back their entire front, assuming that Soviet pressure was maintained.

It's most unlikely that this could be achieved without corresponding withdrawals in western Europe. Hitler's position would be so precarious on the eastern front during his retreat that he wouldn't dare leave his forces scattered throughout the occupied areas of the west.

Moreover, we are reminded of another circumstance by British Prime Minister Churchill who yesterday told a cheering house of commons:

"The spirit of revolt rises higher in all subjugated lands. German rule is maintained from the north cape of Norway to the island of Crete only by hideous and ruthless cruelty, reprisals and massacres."

Many Await Day

The Greeks, the Yugoslavs, the Czechoslovakians, the Poles, the French, the Belgians, the Dutch, the Norwegians—all these tortured folk are merely waiting for the signal to throw themselves on their oppressors. Indeed, Yugoslav guerrilla forces never have ceased to wage bitter war on the invaders, and the ferocity of these attacks has increased with the weakening of Italy.

The idea of Hitler withdrawing to a restricted area for final defense isn't new.

It remains to be seen whether Hitler will make his withdrawals while he still is strong or wait until he absolutely is driven to it. As Churchill remarked in his speech yesterday, the "German national strength is still massive."

If the Fuehrer should act soon, and be able to make these difficult changes without disaster, he certainly would present a formidable front. That's where the allied air navies would come in to crack the interior of his fortress and hew an entrance for our armies.

month and has won every award offered on sales and general activity by the newshy division of the treasury department," Mr. Bredlow said.

ARMY PLANE

they were unable to set the plane down at once. They circled the field several times and alert members of the Marion flight of the Civil Air Patrol, under the direction of Lt. W. R. Reichenstein, drove their automobiles to the edges of the landing field and focused their lights on the center of the field, giving the two Army pilots a make-shift landing lighting device.

Lt. Walters told waiting CAP members, upon landing, that he and Moore decided to wait until today to make the return trip to George Field. He said flying conditions, coupled with the severe electrical storm, were the reasons for cancelling the flight.

The Marion men planned to leave Marion about 8 o'clock this afternoon. Lt. Moore will return to Walters to George Field and in a day or so will return to Marion on leave. Lt. Walters is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beringer of south of Marion. He is an instructor in advanced flying at the Illinois field. Moore, son
